

sustainable futures: architecture and urbanism in the global south

international conference
Kampala, June 27 - 30, 2012

24 January, 2012

Dear Delegate,

RE: Travel Planning - Sustainable Futures Conference, Kampala, June 2012.

Thank you for your interest in the Sustainable Futures Conference: Architecture and Urbanism in the Global South to be held in Kampala, Uganda during June 2012. To help you with your travel planning, the Conference Secretariat has teamed up with Star Alliance partner Brussels Airlines to offer delegates from Europe and further afield on their network preferential rates for travel to the conference. A discount of up to 15% is being offered on available economy/tourist class airfares to Entebbe across the Brussels Airlines network, an offer extended to delegates and their travelling companions.

To take advantage of this offer, go to www.brusselsairlines.com, and after having chosen your dates, city of departure and destination city [Entebbe - EBB], click the option "I have a promocode". Enter promotion code 11116084 in the box displayed. Bookings can be done any time until the 21 June 2012 and travel may be on any flights between 21 June 2012 and 3 July 2012. For flights with connections on partner airlines, please contact your Travel Agent, or Brussels Airlines directly. We will update you with further details on connections as they are made available.

Brussels Airlines recently announced its newest destination in North America - New York (JFK). Daily flights will begin in June 2012, with convenient connections to Entebbe. Brussels Airlines also unveiled its new Business and Economy Class cabins that will be available on their long haul fleet from June 2012. For further details, refer to the Brussels Airlines website www.brusselsairlines.com.

Brussels Airlines flights arriving in Entebbe on Thursday 21st June, Saturday 23rd June and Tuesday 26th June 2012 will be met by a Conference Representative.

We look forward to welcoming you to Kampala!

Best Regards

Mr. Mark R.O. Olweny
Conference Convenor

